Vol. XXIV., No. 3.

December, 1937.

Editorial Notes.

We offer our respectful congratulation to Mr. C. E. Borelli on his succeeding to the Chairmanship of the School Governors. Old Boy of the School (1880-1887), Governor for many years, and always our warm friend, he has our good wishes for a happy term of office.

The number of School trophies has been increased by the gift of a valuable Cup to be held by the winner of the Open Hurdles. The generous donor is Captain W. H. Martin, of Bentley, whom we thank very warmly.

For many years now the youngest class in certain competitions has been restricted to boys "under 11 years 6 months on July 31st next." In view of the changing age composition of the School, it was decided by the Games Committee this term to raise the age limit to 12 years.

Present boys will have noticed the long absence from School of Norman Rose, who was a member of Form I. They will now hear with regret that he was suffering from a very rare disease and that he died on Tuesday, November 23rd, at the National Hospital, London, where he was a patient. His Form has already sent a letter of condolence and sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Rose, who have replied with their thanks, and we now take this opportunity of expressing the regret of the whole School at his passing. Active, and keen to take part in the athletic activities of the School, Norman Rose lives in our memory as a friendly, cheerful and willing personality.

D. J. Reeve and J. W. Stoye, who followed a course of instruction in Caen last August, have come back armed with a Diplôme Supérieur of the Institut Pédagogique International—and a considerable number of colloquial expressions.

At an exhibition of handicraft in The Bourne, D. R. Goddard gained a prize for woodwork in the “under 14” class.

George Sturt.

Those who, on the occasion of the unveiling of the memorial tablet to George Sturt in the Farnham Parish Church on November 3rd, were privileged to hear the brilliant appreciation of the great Farnham writer by the Secretary of the British Museum, Mr. Arundell Esdaile, and those who consoled themselves for their absence by reading the account of the address in the “Farnham Herald” that week-end, will have no need to be told in what high esteem George Sturt, who wrote under the pen-name of “George Bourne,” is held in the world of literature.

It is a matter, therefore, of great pride to F.G.S. to remember that Sturt was a pupil of the School from January, 1876, to 1879, and that he was a master from 1879 to 1884.

What more natural way, then, of commemorating his name could the Memorial Committee have devised than to establish a permanent prize at the School, and one which, it is hoped, will encourage and inspire just the sort of youngster that Sturt himself was? The prize will be awarded each year for an English essay—the subject to be chosen by the Headmaster. He intends, we believe, to offer a wide choice. Let us hope that F.G.S. boys will rise to the occasion and show that the days of good writing, taste and sincere thought are not over.

Debating Society.

A preliminary meeting of the Debating Society was held on September 17th in order to elect a committee and to arrange the programme of debates for the term.

The first debate was held on October 1st, when Mr. Nolan proposed that "Fascism as a form of government is the best hope for Britain." He emphatically denied that it would mean a dictatorship. In this highly scientific age, a body of scientifically trained men with complete control of the government executive was essential. In the formation of a corporate state, which was the Fascist ideal, this would be formed. Mr. Brock, opposing the motion, said that Fascism was a doctrine of force and could never gain control in England owing to the Englishman's stubborn spirit and loathing for force. The motion was defeated by 38 votes to five.

On October 15th Mr. Lambert proposed that professionalism was detrimental to sport. He said that, in its true sense, sport was for pleasure and amusement, and not for gain. Many sports had been ruined by professionalism, and the standard of play of professionals was no higher than that of amateurs. Mr. Alston, opposing, said that professionalism improved the standard of play, gave a living to those with no academic abilities and brought large crowds from loafing on the streets. The motion was carried by nine votes to eight.

"Railways as a form of transport are obsolete" was thrashed out by the House on October 29th. Mr. Newberry, in proposing the motion, said that aviation had speeded up enormously the carrying of mails. Roads ran through every small village, whereas railways ran through only some towns. Mr. Hawkins, opposing, said that railways had always and still caused a great loss to owners of other forms of transport. Railways were used for carrying everything; they had very frequent services and carried full loads. The motion was defeated by 26 votes to five.

R.A.F. Visit.

A large number availed themselves of the invitation to visit the R.A.F. station at Farnborough one Saturday morning this term. Our air-minded youth were not loth to see things for themselves at close quarters, and as everything was done to satisfy the most enquiring mind, those who made the journey were well repaid for their trouble. When we asked our chief aviation expert for an account of the visit, we looked for something in prose; but he, infected no doubt by his subject, has expressed himself in a poetic flight as follows:—

Should you ask me whence this story,
 Whence this legend and tradition,
 I should answer, I should tell you:
 At the ritual recitation,
 At the early-morning prayer-time,
 Came the voice of Chief Instructor,
 Filled the Hall with wondrous sound,
 Speaking words of invitation.
 Wing Commander, mighty birdman,
 Chief of all the R.A.F. men,
 Chief of pilots and ack emmas,
 Offers peace pipe to Farnhamians.
 Bids them come to see his warplanes,
 See his Audax and his Phoenix,
 See his Moth and Avro Tutor,
 See his Hart and Vildebeeste,
 By the gorse bush and the bracken,
 By the Mimi tank repair sheds,
 Near the wide spread landing ground.
 From the far off Hindhead mountains,
 From the Prairie to the West,
 Came the curious, bold Grammarians,
 Came the ancient, noble Sixth Form,
 Came the Fifth Form from Utopia,
 Came the Boarders and the Juniors,
 Making for the Magic Field.
 On arival first we saw there
 Hawker Audax proudly rising,
 Whirring, drumming far above us,
 Flying to the northern fen-lands.
 Then by R.A.F. man guided
 (Proved by signs a Farnham Tribesman)
 We were shown controls and gun-sights,
 Shown the engines, guns and cameras,
 Parachutes with silken rope-cords,
 Bristol Fighters, Hawker Harts.
 From the tall, palatial building
 Came a voice like Barmwawa,
 Came a rolling, ringing sound.

'Twas the syren sounding noon time,
Ending labour for the day.
Then each hungry man of Farnham,
From the heap beneath the pine tree,
Dragged him out his pedal cycle,
Mounted same upon the roadway,
Pedalled hard for dear life westward
Drawn by thoughts of home and lunch.

G. G. NOLAN.

Across the Andes by Train.

Starting at 7 a.m. one Sunday morning from Valparaiso to Buenos Aires, the electric train slowly pulled out of the station. Not very long after, it stopped at Viña del Mar, the suburban resort of Valparaiso. After that it continued to the foot of the Andes, where it was changed for two steam engines; the track also became single. Soon after starting on the climb over the Andes, Customs officials boarded the train and searched through everybody's luggage.

After climbing for about an hour, lunch was served, and I clearly remember that there was a fall of a few hundred feet to the left, while to the right there rose a sheer cliff. After lunch, as before, the time was mostly spent in reading, but I also remember that there were several tunnels, which consisted of thick planks of wood, fixed at the top right and bottom left so as to protect both the line and the train from falls of rock and stones. Going up the mountain, the two engines were helped by a rack rail in the centre of the track.

Since the brake drums on one of the engines became overheated, there was a considerable wait in the mountains, where there was a good fall of snow, and the rest of the journey, till we changed trains, was done at reduced speed. Arriving at Mendoza at 11 p.m. the same day, which was four or five hours late, changing was effected from an open type of carriage to a sleeping train. I do not remember anything else till about 9 a.m. the following morning, when I was woken up and saw, out of my carriage window, fields stretching for miles on each side. The train was making good going, which at Mendoza had changed back to a double track. That day and the next were spent mostly in reading.

After lunch on the third day of the journey, the train was only about 200 miles from Buenos Aires, which was reached at 7 p.m., and about the first thing one sees on that station is smartly dressed negro porters from the different hotels of the town enquiring if anyone is destined for their particular hotel. If so, they immediately take that person's luggage to the hotel.

A.R.P. at F.G.S.

There are fine facilities at the School for training in Air Raid Precautions, and it is high time that this was made known throughout our fair bomb-minded country. To the furthering of this object I now attempt to put forward our plans, and hope these suggestions will not be taken too seriously by the Governors.

First Aid could be practised on the new field, effect to be added by digging craters in it. This would, of course, necessitate the further employment of the two men who have trudged up and down with shovels full of earth for the last decade. We are therefore opening a subscription list. Anyone who wishes to take advantage of this should send a donation, together with the covers of the next two magazines. A receipt will be sent post free.

Moving targets could be provided for shooting practice; on the old field are wont to stray certain hens. A little motive power in the form of catapults would be necessary to produce the "move" part of the targets.

Also, on the premises, is an excellent gas chamber. The trained and expert chemists of the Vth mix the correct proportions of water and carbide. They then leave. In room 3, above, could be a squad of suitably protected pupils wearing anything from a nose-bag to an oxygen tent. A number of juniors are then propelled into the room where the others wait to do their rescue work. But fumes from the mixture mentioned can attain great proportions—hence a hasty retreat. The victims are left for the dog to extract.

The old gym provides an a-barn-dance of room (I couldn't resist that one) for a very temporary hospital, where Grammar School girls could practise nursing on the victims.

Billets could be arranged in the "huts." They were used to such things in the Napoleonic Wars (so legend tells), so why not now? And what if the roof does let a little water in, and the walls are a little over-ventilated, and the fires do let all the heat up the chimneys?

At this juncture, it might be as well to mention a few common errors. Looking down the muzzle of a rifle while shooting should be avoided, unless permission is given by the Johnny-in-charge. Taking the pin out of a hand-grenade to eat whelks with should also be guarded against, and matches should not be dropped into petrol tanks to see if they are empty, or full, as the case may be. Somebody might blow your head off for it.

But, "Cor lumme! Up 'eadquarters we don't do things like that! Gets taken up before the gov-nor. Oy! square 'ead!! you'll get a bash over the crust with a box 'oss!" This army training always brings out a man's best qualities.

But enough of this. Stand to—two minutes to first bell. See you in—my mistake: at the mess.

One Side of Life in an American School.

As I have been asked to write something about America, probably the best subject I can choose is that of the typical American School, as I have been in several of them for the last 10 years and should be fairly well qualified to describe some of their inner workings. However, as the "American School" is such a broad subject, I am going to narrow this down to the extra-curricula activities of the students and the function of the student government in my last School.

First, I should say, by extra-curricula activities I mean those activities which are not actually a part of the School course. These are carried on, for the most part each morning, during a special 45 minute period, which at the same time serves the purpose of the 10 minute break in this School. Probably the most important of these functions are those of the School newspaper and annual.

The newspaper is published at the price of 2½d. every two weeks by the students, with the censorship of the faculty advisers. It consists of eight pages and is financed entirely by the selling of advertisements and by the money obtained from the sale of each issue. The printing is done by a regular firm in the town and costs in the neighbourhood of £25, of which £5 is usually for engraving.

At the beginning of each School year, the business staff is organised in such a way that each member goes to a certain group of merchants and tries to get them to buy a space in the paper for the entire year. In case they do not buy ads. for the entire year, the boy or girl goes to that group of firms each issue for ads. In charge of this division is a business manager with two assistants, who see that the groups function properly. The second division, the editorial staff, is organised with the editor-in-chief at its head, with an editorial, sports and general news editor under him. The editor-in-chief is also in general charge of the business staff.

At the end of each School year a School annual is printed which contains pictures of all the seniors, the teaching staff and group pictures of all athletic teams, classes and clubs. This publication, also, is entirely financed by the students and written by them.

Another important group is the literary societies, in which the boys and girls of the School gain practice in debating and speech-making every other Thursday. On the other Thursdays, clubs such as a science club, dramatic, art and current affairs meet.

Corresponding to the prefects in this School there is a system of student government, which consists of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer of the entire student body, of each of the three classes—or, as you would call them, forms—and of the individual sections, of which there are over 25. The officers of the student body and of the various classes organise two programmes a week for the entire School during the activity period. They are also the upper rank members of the student council, which is composed of the vice-presidents of all the sections and the officers of the student body and classes. This group has the power to make rules, which regulate such things as riding on the playground, all of which are subject to the approval of the headmaster. The officers of each section have charge of their groups, just as the form captains do here; but they also have the duty of planning what is known as a home-room programme once a month.

P. M. GROSS.

A Cinema Dream.

(With apologies to Tennyson).

How sweet it were, seated in cushioned ease,
With half-shut eyes to hear the masters wheeze,
A toothsome bag of comfits on the knees;
To dream and dream, nor ever fear the light
That turns to busy day the idle night;
To hear each other's whispered speech,
Munching our toffee hour by hour,
To watch them frown and mouth and screech,
And know we're far beyond their power;
To give our hearts and spirits every
Chance to plunge in aimless reverie;
To muse and brood and call again to memory
Those golden moments of our liberty,
The games we played upon the sun-lit grass,
Ere we were herded in to form a class.

Railways.

The steam railway was a development of the wagonway frequently employed during the 16th to 18th centuries. The invention of the steam engine led Richard Trevethick to design a steam engine on wheels which generated sufficient power to move itself. In 1811, John Blenkinsop patented a design for a railway with a toothed wheel and rack. The following year William Hedley built two steam locomotives for a Tyneside colliery which depended for adhesion between rail and wheel on its own weight. In 1814 George Stephenson introduced his first locomotive. 1825 and the following years saw the beginnings of many more railways, most famous being the Liverpool to Manchester, opened in 1830. Great difficulty was experienced in the construction of the line owing to the opposition of the landowners, but in spite of this it was a great success, and plans were set on foot for the building of railways not only in Great Britain but on the Continent and in North America.

The first locomotives were very small and had the cylinders mounted on top of the boilers, but now the cylinders are placed just ahead of the driving wheels either inside or outside the frames. A very new introduction into locomotive construction is streamlining, the best examples being the "Silver Jubilee" and "Coronation" series. The first passenger coaches were three-compartment models built after the style of the stage coach. Then came very elaborate first-class coaches, although second and third-class were little better than cattle trucks; but soon all coaches were provided with roofs and doors. The next introduction was the dining car, and after that the sleeping car.

On the first railways there was no signalling apparatus, but after a time a flag-man was introduced. The first control from a central point was when one of these flag-men arranged wires by which he could change his flags. Soon signal arms on posts were introduced, and now we have the colour light signals.

Railway bridges form some of the greatest engineering achievements of history, for they have to be built so as to withstand an enormous amount of vibration. The steam locomotive has held its place in spite of the introduction of electric traction, but what is going to endanger the future of the steam locomotive is the Diesel electric locomotive, which embodies the quick acceleration of the electric train with the staying power of the steam locomotive.

One of the greatest railway services is the railway post office. The first travelling post office was introduced in 1838. To-day trains specially for post office work leave London for the North and West, having as many as 50 post office employees on board. Thus in 112 years the railway has developed from a much ridiculed idea into one of the greatest methods of transport of the day.

Celebrating the Fifth.

LECLERCQ ciel (excuse the French) welcomed the boys who were off to see the match between Surrey and Kent at the Oval. CHAPMAN was playing, while Gover, who may be TALBOT worth his salt, was having his "Benefit," with JAMES Langridge as Umpire. Passing through BARNES, the coach took them to TEMPLE Bar, where they saw Private ATKINS ON sentry duty. When they arrived, Kent had already BINNING, but DAVE IS going to show 'em how to PIERCE the outfield next time.

When all was OVER, they started back for School, passing Mrs. HARRIS, of Radio Fame, telling everyone COLWILL be cheaper and also in her FOLEY saying "AYLWIN t' Derby," not realising she wasn't running. In the coach everyone was eating WILKINSON'S Liquorice Allsorts, especially EDMONDS ON the luggage grid. On arrival at School, one boy went to ELPHICKS to get a new cap, while another went home to find his father reading LAWRENCE of Arabia, a LITTLE book which he will LEVISON in his will. This boy took the cat and proceeded to BOULTER out and saw a sparrow sharpening his BEEKEN a tree; then, putting his TIDDlers to sleep, he copied them, and thus ended a perfect day.

T. TIDD.

Horizons.

People will travel many miles to look at a view. Special coaches are run from London on Sunday afternoons to Hindhead. The travellers disembark, climb to the top of Gibbet Hill and gaze at the marvellous stretch of country that unfolds before their eyes. "Isn't it wonderful?" they say, and hurry away to their teas in one of the cafés by the cross-roads. A view is wasted on them. It is a thing to be studied at leisure and alone; then perhaps the full beauty and awe of it may reward the beholder.

But whenever I gaze into the distance, a feeling of dissatisfaction pervades me. The horizon is lost in mist, and I feel that the best things are hidden from my sight, and so a sense of mystery is begotten. And it is this sense, more fully developed, which youth has as it looks out on life.

It has been said: "Live for to-day and let the morrow look after itself," but this will not do for me. My thoughts are always turning to the future, and the present seems only a time of preparation for what is to come. Past history seems dull stuff compared with what we are going to experience. Yet is the future uncertain as my thoughts range over the years to come. Am I to stride the mountain ranges, or dwell in lowly valleys, during that long procession of the years?

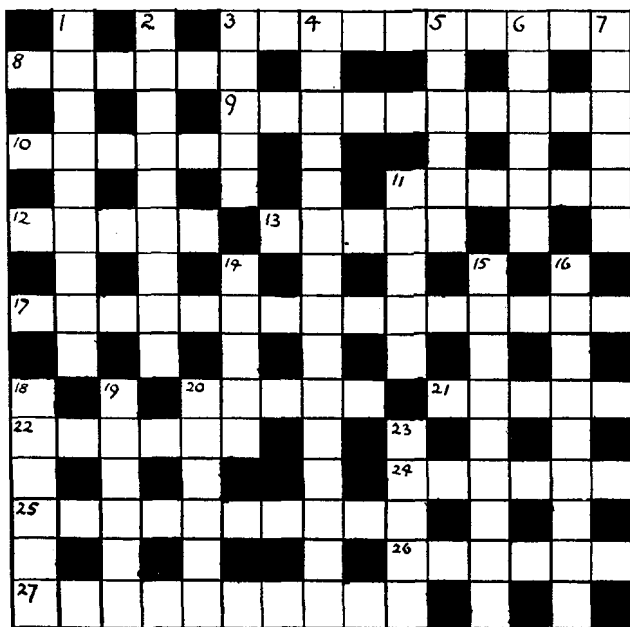

The future beyond the horizon is much more uncertain and terrifying for us than it was for our fathers in their youth. They grew up in a world of fixed ideas—a world without change except in so far as it might be improved by the steady march of progress. But we have grown up in an age of unrest, disorder and uncertainty. We have grown up in the midst of slumps, strikes and threats of war. Change is rapid and everywhere, and it is difficult to imagine a peaceful world in the future. Is there to be another war? Will unemployment surpass the colossal figures we have known? Strife and insecurity in the past: what lies beyond the horizon?

How misty it is! How difficult it is to pick our way! There is the road of ambition, the desire to gain goods or fame. But will these really be worth while if they are realised? Surely there is something better on which to spend our efforts. Is it not for us to help the world on to a better future? I for one, with determination and hope, will do my part to move the world in the right direction so that it may come in time to the good things hidden beyond the present misty horizon.

Class-Work Trophy.

This competition has just completed one full year, and the method of scoring appears to be working well. For the sake of permanence, the system of awarding points is here summarised.

(1) Term and Examination Order. The difference between the average mark and the top mark in each form list is divided into five equal divisions, and one to five points given to boys placed in these divisions.

(2) Examination Forms: R.S.A. School Certificate, 25; London General Certificate, 20; Matriculation, 25 (Matriculation at a second attempt gains five points if a "General" has already been scored); "Inter" and Higher School Certificate, 50; Higher School Certificate, 40; County Major Scholarship, 25. Points for other examinations will be decided at the time.

(3) There is a loss of one point for each work detention.

Pyrotechnics, or the Art of Firework Making.

Fireworks have been in existence for many thousands of years now, and though they started as a form of celebration in China by means of strings of crackers, fireworks have now developed into a science. There are, however, two definite sides to fireworks: the pleasant and the serious side. The first is easy to guess; if not, a glance back at last November the 5th will show what I mean. The serious side includes the manufacture of explosives used in wartime, rockets and flares for vessels in distress, and other such appliances.

I should not advise anyone to start manufacturing explosives; they are dangerous enough even to experts, but ordinary fireworks of the type sold at exorbitant prices for November 5th celebrations can easily be made at home and at very reasonable cost. To start with, there is the exploding type of firework, which appears to appeal to boys nowadays more than the fancy ones. Practically all the tools required, by the way, are a pestle and mortar. Potassium chlorate is now used chiefly in place of nitre, since potassium chlorate is richer in oxygen and accordingly much faster.

Potassium chlorate and sulphur having been bought, the carbon may be made by heating wood chips in an almost air-tight tin, and all three carefully ground up separately. A rough mixture is then made by using about three parts of chlorate to one of both sulphur and carbon. These are mixed thoroughly and a little of the mixture put well aside and ignited. Careful note should be made of the burning, for if the mixture burns slowly with spitting and crackling, there is too much chlorate present; white lumps left behind also denote this, and more sulphur and carbon must be added. If, however, it burns leaving lumps of burning sulphur behind, more chlorate is needed, as also if black specks of carbon are left behind. Proceeding like this, one can obtain a mixture which disappears in a flash and leaves little or no residue behind. The mixture, which should now be of a dark grey colour, is then made into a mud by adding water, and the whole reground in the mortar. This is now a safe process as there is moisture present. After a good grinding, the mass is then put to dry, and when perfectly dry is cautiously reground into the powder form. The mixture is now in the form of very minute particles and is ready for use.

If old firework cases are obtainable, they may be used as receptacles for the powder, but old empty zinc cases out of batteries will do very well. The case is filled to the brim with powder, which is then compressed as hard as possible. The upper portion of the case is refilled, and the process repeated until the case is almost full of tightly packed gunpowder. A rod or other instrument is then forced down the centre of the gunpowder to make a hole for the fuse. This consists of a piece of paper rolled several times round a rod of suitable dimensions and gummed, so that the final result is a tube of paper. This is filled up with gunpowder but not compressed, and is inserted into the hole in the powder in the case. The surface of the powder is then protected by a cardboard ring and string, and the whole sealed off with pitch or sealing wax, leaving about an inch or so of fuse protruding from the case. A piece of tissue paper, previously soaked in potassium nitrate solution and dried, is pasted round the end of the fuse so that the paper comes into contact with the gunpowder in the cylinder of paper. When this paper is ignited, it burns slowly down until it ignites the powder in the paper cylinder, which burns fairly rapidly down into the case, where the packed powder explodes on ignition by the flame from the fuse.

The showy fireworks, which include Roman Candles, coloured lights and the like, depend on the addition of a salt of a suitable metal to a mixture with a smaller proportion of carbon. It will have the effect of burning the metal, giving its characteristic colour. Among the most common are strontium nitrate for a red colour, barium nitrate for green, sodium carbonate or oxalate for yellow, and copper carbonate for a blue flame.

Magnesium powder is also used for white flares where great brilliance is aimed at, but aluminium dust will create the same effect. Zinc dust gives a brilliant green colour, while iron filings give the sparkling effect.

These mixtures are not compressed as are the explosive mixtures, and are ignited by a simple quick match which is in contact with the powder.

Above all, be cautious if you want to retain your dignity and your eyebrows.

Cricket.

Last cricket season was very successful. The First Eleven, ably led by Kirk, won 11 and lost two; the Second Eleven won three and lost five; the Juniors won three. At the end of the season, colours were awarded to Levison and Little, and re-awarded to Kirk. The prize—a bat—was awarded to Kirk for good all-round play and leadership.

Kirk was an excellent captain, infusing his enthusiasm into the other members, and in his general management of the bowling and setting the field he was a splendid leader. He showed a commendable restraint in his batting, and when it is remembered he scored over 400 runs, its quality is obvious. He scored freely on both sides of the wicket and made four scores over fifty.

He was well supported by Levison and Little, and the other members in a less degree. Levison always impressed at the crease, although he was not highly successful, but his bowling was good and effective. Little helped with some useful innings, and his total of runs was over 200.

A word, too, for Fisher, who improved as a wicket-keeper out of all recognition, helping to dismiss 18 opponents by catching or stumping. Opponents generally testified to his smartness by staying "at home." Bacon and Foley were worth their places for fielding alone, and generally the fielding was satisfactory. Lawrence showed great promise as a fast bowler and should do well next year.

The Second Eleven had a moderate season, their drawback being their inability to score runs. Too many were anxious to score boundaries at the beginning of their innings.

The Juniors won all their matches and showed praiseworthy keenness.

In March, 12 boys went down to the Cricket School, where the coaching of James (the former New Zealand wicket-keeper) was much appreciated.

Athletics.

The School's Athletic Sports were favoured with almost perfect weather, fine and sunny, but not too hot, and consequently there was a goodly number of spectators. The entries were somewhat below usual, but the standard was high. Only one record was broken, however, R. W. Gibbs running the 11.6 and under 220 yards in 31 3-5 secs., beating M. C. Colwill's 1933 record by 1-5 sec. T. R. Alston did well to equal the open high jump record of 5ft. 3ins. set up by G. F. Till in 1927, and N. H. Temple jumped 13ft. to equal the 11.6 and under long jump record set up by A. Phillips 17 years ago. H. de B. Brock went all out to break the open half-mile record and got within 2 3-5 secs. of W. S. L. Smallman's time (1933).

The "Borelli" Cup (challenge cup presented by Mr. C. E. Borelli) for the boy gaining most points in the four medal events each competitor is allowed to enter, was won by R. W. Judd with nine points (three first places). J. H. James and H. de B. Brock each had six points.

L. Atkinson with 11 points (three firsts and a second place) won the "Stickland" Cup (challenge cup presented by Captain J. R. Stickland, a former Headmaster) for the most points in the junior events. R. F. Hughes gained 10 points.

During the presentation of the prizes by Miss Borelli, it was explained that R. R. Kirk, having won the "Borelli" Cup for two years running, had stood down this year to give someone else a chance.

THE SCHOOL v. OLD BOYS.

The half-mile medley relay (220 yards, 110 yards, 110 yards, 440 yards) was won by the School. E. A. Thurston (for the Old Boys) gained a lead from G. A. D. Evans, which A. J. Hillyer maintained against H. E. Winter. R. W. Judd, however, reduced the lead from E. G. Glynn and E. J. Williams (Old Boys) and R. R. Kirk started the 440 practically level. Kirk took the lead by about a yard and held it to the tape, thus giving the School the victory in a very exciting race in 1 min. 44 1-5 secs. The Old Boys' team covered the course in 1 min. 43 4-5 secs. in 1935.

SUCCESS IN COUNTY SPORTS MEETING.

The School did extraordinarily well to gain most points in the senior events at the first meeting of the recently formed Surrey Secondary Schools Athletic Association at the University of London Athletic Ground, Motspur Park. We gained 16 points, compared with Mitcham County School's 12. Sutton C.S. were third with 8 points, Guildford R.G.S. fourth with 7 points, and Tiffin School (Kingston) fifth with 6 points. Tiffin were most successful in the junior events with 18 points, Mitcham had 11 points, Guildford 9 points, Sutton 8 points and Farnham 4 points. Other schools competing were Dorking C.S., East Sheen C.S., Godalming C.S., Oxted County Secondary School, Raynes Park C.S., Richmond C.S. and Surbiton C.S.

With the open relay and 440 yards to be run, Farnham and Mitcham were level and both schools had qualified for the finals in both these events. The relay came first immediately after the interval. Evans and Winter held their own in the first two 110 yards, and with Judd giving him a fair start, Kirk easily reached the tape first, 47 secs. after Evans had left the mark. This gave Farnham a two-points lead, Mitcham being second and Guildford third. When the 440 final was run, Judd had not recovered from his exertion in the relay, and to finish a close second was a magnificent effort. The Sutton runner was first in 55 secs., Guildford third and Mitcham fourth. And so Farnham gained a four-point advantage over Mitcham.

Three records were broken at the Swimming Sports at the Town Baths. J. O. Levison knocked 5 3-5 secs. off P. Lillywhite's 1936 record of 3 mins. 3 secs. for the 200 yards open, and completed the two lengths open in 42 2-5 secs.—4-5 sec. faster than Lillywhite's record time. The other record was created by D. B. Allen, who swam two lengths on the breast stroke in 61 3-5 secs.

Morley won the Inter-House competition with 50½ points. Points were given for successes in the open and junior relays and diving, and the open team race, and also for boys swimming 440 yards or one length. Harding had 45½ points, School 40, Childe 30½ and Massingberd 29½.

After the sports, the medals were presented by Mrs. D. M. Morgan.

Expressing thanks to her and also to the diving judges and the Farnham U.D.C. for the loan of chairs, Mr. C. E. Borelli (Chairman of the Governors) said he was pleased that the standard of swimming at the School was improving and that it was gratifying to know that boys from the School had broken records in the recent town sports.

During the summer holidays the following boys, coached by Mr. F. Wickens, qualified for the bronze medal of the Royal Humane Society, for proficiency in life-saving drill: F. P. Lambert, J. O. Levison, M. E. P. West, D. B. Allen, J. J. Lowry and W. A. Riseborough.

440 Yards Certificates to P. H. Richmond, I. E. Dadson, R. G. Lacey, K. E. Taylor, K. J. Cornwall, M. J. Smallcombe, J. R. Hollom, B. C. Job, F. LeClercq, C. E. LeClercq, A. F. Rawlinson, H. D. Spiegel, D. J. McLeod, I. E. Dolley, L. P. James, E. N. Gudge, E. E. Wallis, W. G. B. Sims, R. G. Bristow, E. Sichel, G. A. L. Thurgood, H. R. L. Johns, J. E. Goddard and K. R. Kirk. One Length (breast stroke) certificates to P. R. May, A. R. Cobbett, R. A. Bristow and E. F. Hunt. School colours to F. P. Lambert and J. O. Levison.

At the Farnham Town Aquatic Sports the School had some notable successes. B. D. Heelis broke the record for the junior (under 13) championship by swimming 100 yards in 90 secs.—an improvement of 6 1-5 secs.

The junior (under 16) championship (100 yards) was won by B. G. Louch in 83 4-5 secs. F. P. Lambert was second.

Competing for the first time in the senior championship, J. O. Levison won the Burnham Cup, swimming 100 yards in 67 2-5 secs.—5 secs. faster than D. W. Jepp's 1934 time.

P. J. Rose won the diving competition for boys under 16.

House Notes.

CHILDE.

We did not fare very well in the Cricket last season, both Juniors and Seniors occupying only third place. Our Swimming had not improved, and we only managed to gain fourth place in the Swimming Sports. In the Shooting Competition, although we did not maintain our improvement of the previous term, we managed to obtain third place. Owing to these rather unfortunate set-backs, we dropped rather suddenly to fourth in the Cock-House Competition.

Now for the present School year. The Seniors have started very well indeed, sharing the Senior Football Cup with Harding and winning the Senior Cross-Country. We are, however, rather handicapped as we have very few Juniors. They ran and played their matches very pluckily, and have been rather unfortunate not to have had their sterling efforts crowned with more success.

This is all so far this term, but I hope that as we have no outstanding boxers in the House this year, we shall have a large number of entries for the Inter-House Boxing.

C. E. TAYLOR.

HARDING.

We think the traditions of Harding were not worthily upheld during the last School year. As a result of this, we finished last in the Cock-House table. In the Inter-House Cricket the Seniors were fourth and the Juniors fifth. The House did well in the Swimming, coming second.

This term's football has been very satisfactory. More as a result of House spirit than individual prowess, the Seniors tied for the cup, and the Juniors, gaining second place, had bad luck in not being a little more successful. The Seniors were fifth and Juniors fourth in the Cross-Country, but the entry showed that enthusiasm was not lacking.

Judging by the keenness shown by the House in Football and the Cross-Country this term, I am quite sure I shall be able to write next term: "The Boxing Cup is still in the fists of Harding."

C. J. V. FISHER.

MASSINGBERD.

Hearty congratulations are to be offered to the House on the improvement of four places which it managed in the Cock-House table last year: we finished a good second to School, and with a little more effort in Swimming and Senior Cricket, in both of which we gained no points, we might have carried off the Shield. Our Shooting was well up to the standard set a few years ago, for we won the Trophy with a record aggregate. Our Juniors, to whom we owe much of our success, also shared the Junior Cricket with School.

So much for last year. We have made a good start in the sporting field this year, holding up to now second place to Childe. Though we dropped from first to second place in both Junior and Senior sections of the Cross-Country run, we gained most points in the Cock-House table. Our Football was not exceptional; indeed, it was below expectation, and we had to content ourselves with third place in Senior and fourth in Junior.

Now may I be permitted to express the hope that we will have a bigger entry for the Boxing than we have had in recent years. This event has always been rather a weakness for us, as those few members who have entered for the Boxing have been unsupported in their endeavours. So put your backs into it, Massingberd! We want the Shield this year, if possible, but, above all, we must maintain the high standard we set ourselves last year, in that besides our sporting achievements we won the Dr. Shirley Jones' Cup for class-work in its first year of presentation. Though this Cup has less glamour than those of the sporting field, it is nevertheless very important, as it gives those of us who are blessed with brains and not brawn a chance to help the House. So let us make this an even better year and win both; there is no reason why we should not do so.

T. R. ALSTON.

MORLEY.

Morley came third in last year's Cock-House table. This year we hope that Morley will head that list. There is great talent in our House, and we stand a good chance, but only if we all pull together and everyone does his bit.

Morley won the Junior Football Cup. Our senior team was a tough proposition to every team we played, and when we were beaten it was by superior skill. We had quite a good entry for the Cross-Country Run, and great keenness was evinced in the training.

When this magazine appears, we hope that Morley will have won the Boxing. Before us we have Athletics, Shooting, Cricket and Swimming.

Now, Morley, don't forget: Cock House this year!

D. J. REEVE.

Brilliant performances last year enabled us to win the Cock-House Shield for the third time in four years. This excellent performance was the result of the leadership of R. R. Kirk, backed up by fine House spirit. We did very well in the Cricket, the Seniors winning it and the Juniors tying for first place. However, we lost the Swimming after having held it for 10 consecutive years. On the other hand, our Shooting showed a great improvement. Well done, School!

Again we started off on equal terms with the other Houses. In the Football the Juniors tied for first place and the Seniors came last. In the Cross-Country the Juniors again came first and the Seniors placed fourth. We shall expect a large number to enter for the Boxing and win the Cup once more.

W. J. BAKER.

The School Run.

The annual cross-country run was held in very good weather conditions. The course was slightly longer than last year's. It led through The Bourne and across the Recreation Ground to Dene Lane; from there through the woods to Tilford Road; up to Lodge Hill Road down to the Spotted Cow and back home by way of "Paradise." There was a very good entry, 125 completing the course, 66 of them Juniors (under 14 years 6 months). By completing the course in 22 minutes 14 3-5 secs., J. H. James becomes holder of the Miller Challenge Cup. J. M. Hutchings was the first Junior home.

In the Inter-House competition (open) the first 10 in each House counted, while the first seven Juniors in each house counted for the Junior competition. Massingberd, who won both Open and Junior events last year, had representatives in the first two places but took second place with 217 points to Childe with 178 points. Morley were third with 256, School House fourth with 343 and Harding fifth with 348.

School House won the Junior event with 96 points, and Massingberd were second with 111, Harding third with 130, Morley fourth with 144, and Childe fifth with 185. The detailed placings were as follows:—

THE RE-UNION.

There was a somewhat meagre attendance on the School field for the Summer Re-union last term, but those who came had no cause to regret making the effort to be present. The proceedings opened with a cricket match, Married v. Single. The Single side were successful by seven wickets, replying with 78 for 3 to the Married team's total of 68. N. H. Patrick, who is not a regular player, was the Married's best batsman, and he and Ernest Barnard added 42 for the third wicket. Wing took 5 for 17 and Hillyer 5 for 26. These two Single batsmen opened their side's innings, and after Wing had been dismissed at 18, Hillyer and Lord carried the total to 59. They had 66 for 3, and Page and Thurston added another 12 before stumps were drawn. Kirk took 2 for 6 and Wilkinson 1 for 34. The Married side included one single Old Boy and two present boys. One of the best gymnastic shows ever presented at the School was given by boys under the direction of Mr. W. F. Wickens in the evening. It included marching, ground work, bar work, chair tricks and horse work. Following this, there was a tug-of-war between Married and Single Old Boys, the latter again being successful. They won by two pulls to one. The Single team was: Messrs. E. A. Thurston, E. Williams, A. J. Hillyer, R. J. Ridout, V. Rumble, H. Smither, W. Blake, R. J. Page and F. R. Croucher, with Mr. E. G. Glynn as coach. Mr. S. D. M. Horner coached the Married team, which consisted of Messrs. G. M. Aylwin, F. O. M. Taylor, N. H. Hillyer, S. G. Robins, L. F. Wright, L. V. Lance, N. H. Patrick, H. Wilkinson and L. G. White.

Comic sports arranged by Mr. E. Williams caused a great deal of amusement. The prize-winners were as follows: Ladies' Egg and Spoon: 1, Mrs. Lance; 2, Mrs. Smallcombe. Gents' Three-legged: 1, Messrs. E. A. Thurston and R. R. Kirk; 2, Messrs. R. J. Page and A. J. Hillyer. Mixed Cigarette Race: 1, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Wright; 2, Mr. W. S. L. Smallman and Miss June Robins.

Two very Old Boys present during the afternoon were Mr. J. Maxwell Aylwin, of West Street, who left the School in 1869 and who celebrated his 82nd birthday recently, and Mr. F. S. Peachey, of Godalming, who is just 77. The two boys "hobnobbed" and exchanged reminiscences. Peachey was able to tell Mac, with pardonable pride, how in his day he had captained the cricket eleven and taken part in the gymnastics, and Mac was able to tell Peachey quite a lot of things about the old School under Mr. Charles Stroud.

In spite of a very small attendance, the dance at the Church House was very enjoyable and proved a fitting conclusion to the Re-union, the arrangements for which were made by the General Committee, of which Mr. F. A. Morgan (Headmaster of the School and President of the Association) is Chairman and Messrs. J. E. Sims and I. C. Patrick the Hon. Secretaries.

FOOTBALL—RIFLE SHOOTING—BADMINTON.

It will be remembered that at the annual meeting of the Association last December a small committee was appointed, under the leadership of the Sports Club Secretary, F. O. M. Taylor, to revive the defunct sporting activities. The efforts of that committee have been rewarded, and I am glad to report that the Football Club has commenced the season successfully; the Rifle Club, too, is well supported. Unfortunately, on the other hand, I find that the Badminton Club is now extinct, as the number of keen members was too small to warrant its continuance.

The footballers' success to date in the Second Division of the Farnham Junior League augurs well for the continuance of the club, as on present form they will undoubtedly finish the season very near the top of the table, if not as champions. The fact that there are enough players to run two teams is due almost entirely to the enthusiasm of T. C. Aldridge, the secretary. It is worthy of note that this number has been acquired without taking players from other clubs, and it is also pleasing to see that new old boys are rallying round.

The Rifle Club, too, is depending on new blood. Some four 1935-36 members can be relied upon, but, although several new members have joined, a few more would be very welcome. The club will compete in the North Hants Winter Postal League, and there will be individual competitions throughout the season. At the moment I am carrying out the duties of secretary myself, but credit goes to S. C. Hall, who is giving invaluable assistance by being on duty at the range from 7 to about 9.20 every Monday evening.

I. C. PATRICK.

O.F.A. CRICKET, 1937.

The season 1937, after a disappointing start, eventually maintained the progress shown in 1936 and actually ended in a blaze of glory.

As always, every match was a success socially; and from the playing point of view, 18 games were played, eight won, eight lost, two drawn.

Numerically, our playing strength was a little stronger than in previous seasons, but even so it was somewhat difficult to raise a side during July.

Financially, the club is still run at a definite loss, but, thanks to the football cards, which are being continued this winter, at the moment there is no need for worry in this direction.

At the first attempt we were successful in winning the Sports House Cup, a local trophy for knock-out competition. As I think this can be regarded as the club's finest achievement since its formation, short reports and full details of the games will be found at the end of this survey.

The team has been well captained by Jack Wing and, in his absence, by L. E. Lord. E. G. Glynn has again rendered very useful service in the running of the club. The averages are given hereunder, but I would repeat that these do not mean everything, for I think every member of the club has materially helped in his own way towards the very successful climax.

Our sincere thanks are due to Mr. Morgan for the use of the School Field and Dining Room; to Mr. George Boyce for preparing our wickets; to Mrs. Wing for her usual excellent teas; and to Roy Harrington for acting as scorer.

SPORTS HOUSE TROPHY.

First Round: Wednesday, June 16th—Lindford Royal Exchange (Home).

To be quite candid, the Old Boys did not enter the game with any great hopes of success, as to date all the previous games had been lost. However, thanks to some bright batting, the reasonable score of 125 for 9 was reached before Wing declared. Lindford were badly handicapped by the failing light and only reached the modest total of 51, Wing bowling very well to take 5 for 13.

Second Round: August 1st—Headley (Home).

This game was played in glorious weather in front of a good crowd. Headley had five men out for 25, but then Bellinger, indulging in some lusty smiting, took 25 in two overs from Hillyer, and the early advantage was lost. However, Till bowled splendidly and the whole side were out for 75, Till taking 6 for 14. It was realised that Headley were a strong bowling side, and with 3 men out for 8, the Old Boys' hopes were rather slender. However, Kirk helped Hillyer to take the score to 43, a much brighter outlook. But another collapse set in and 7 were out for 54. Then Levison joined Hillyer, and the necessary 20 runs were obtained amid some excitement. The innings eventually realised 92, Hillyer carrying his bat for 40.

Semi-Final: Rowledge (Away).

This game was again favoured with warm sunshine and a very large crowd. The Old Boys batted first, and Wing and Hillyer put on 118 for the first wicket before they were parted. This must surely rank as the most prolific partnership in the history of our cricket. Wing's 74 included thirteen 4's. After this, wickets fell quickly and runs came slowly, but the innings was declared closed at the tea interval with the score 138 for 6.

Thanks to some more fine bowling by Till and Wing, Rowledge could only muster 62 and thus we entered the Final. Wing took 7 for 24 and had a real field day.

Final: September 12th—v. Hindhead at The Bourne.

The Old Boys won the toss and batted first. A wicket fell early, but Wing and Hillyer again had a good partnership and took the score to 59. After this, runs came steadily but rather slowly owing to some good bowling. Eventually the innings was declared closed at 149 for 9. Stumps had to be drawn at six o'clock and only 90 minutes were left for play. To add to our troubles, rain began to fall and the bowlers were seriously handicapped. However, we came within an ace of victory by securing 9 Hindhead wickets for 108. Although this was a moral victory, it was eventually agreed that the game should be replayed the following week.

Replay Final: September 19th—v. Hindhead at Frensham Heights.

The Old Boys were without Hillyer (injured at football on the previous day), but as events turned out this had no effect whatever on the result. Hindhead batted first and were always struggling for runs. Till and Wing bowled really well for a long spell, and the score only reached 74, Wing taking 6 for 37 and Till 4 for 30. Wing took Levison in with him to open the Old Boys' reply, and after a few overs the issue was never in doubt. Wing quickly got on top of the bowling and scored rapidly; with valuable help from the younger partner, the score was taken to 71 before Wing left. Munfield then scored the necessary runs for victory. We thus received our reward for our misfortune the previous week. After the game, the Cup (which is won outright) was presented to Jack Wing.

On reviewing the matches, it can be easily seen that we owed much to the consistent batting of Hillyer in the first four games and the big innings of Wing in the last three games. The bowling honours go to Wing and Till, who both bowled consistently well and were supported generally by reasonably good fielding. Mention should also be made of the excellent wicket-keeping of Glynn in the final games.

It is to be hoped that this success will spur the club on to greater efforts and that a really successful season may be enjoyed in 1938.

ATHLETIC CLUB.

The 1937 season has proved a most enjoyable and successful one for all who have taken part in O.F.A. matches. Not since their earliest days have the Old Boys mustered such a business-like and keenly-interested team of athletes. The high standard set this year must be maintained at all costs, and all boys leaving School who have any athletic ability are cordially invited to join up with the O.F.A.

O.F.A. v. Dennis A.C. v. Godalming A.C.—At Guildford,
June 9th, 1937.

The O.F.A. opened the season well with a win over their rivals in convincing style. The full result was:—

O.F.A., 21½ points; Godalming, 15; Dennis, 5½. Scoring: 3 for 1st; 2 for 2nd, 1 for 3rd place. Relay, 4 for 1st; 2 for 2nd.

School Sports Day, Wednesday, July 7th.

As reported elsewhere, the School beat the Old Boys in a Medley Sprint Relay after a very close race, thanks once again to a very fast quarter by Kirk.

O.F.A. v. Godalming A.C. v. Dennis A.C.—At Godalming, July 8th, 1937.

One of the most exciting and close contests ever held at Godalming resulted in a win for the home club by 28 points to 27 by O.F.A. and 11 by Dennis. But for the fact that they were unable to field any milers the O.F.A. would have undoubtedly won. They did, however, succeed in winning the medley relay in the fastest time yet recorded in contests between the three clubs. Scoring: 4 for first; 3 for second; 2 for third; 1 for fourth. Relay: 4 for first; 2 for second. Results:—

100 Yards.—1, Kirk (O.F.A.); 2, Jones (O.F.A.); 3, Allen (G.); 4, Pearson (D.). Time: 10 1-5 secs.

O.F.A. v. Godalming A.C. v. Dennis A.C.—At Farnham, July 22nd.

This match attracted a large crowd of spectators, who were entertained to a most thrilling evening's sport. The Old Boys proved successful by 31 points to 27 points by Godalming and 8 by Dennis. Jones was outstanding for the O.F.A., who were unfortunate to lose the services of Kirk; he retired with severe toothache after having sportingly turned out in the 100 yards. The mile provided another close race between those old rivals, Edwards and Smallman, the former proving just that little bit stronger at the finish. Scoring: 4 for first; 3 for second; 2 for third; 1 for fourth. Relay: 4 for first; 2 for second. Results:—

100 Yards.—1, Jones (O.F.A.); 2, Kirk (O.F.A.); 3, Allen (G.); 4, Pearson (D.). Time: 10 2-5 secs.

INSURANCE BUREAU.

This has been an excellent year for new business, compared with results which we have come to consider normal since the slump. Since January we have booked new business to the value of about £60, to which we may add our fixed income of about £15 or £16. We shall not feel the full benefit of this revival this year, since all commissions do not fall in immediately, but there is no doubt that we shall add to the funds this year an amount somewhat better than for several years. That we should still be moving at this steady rate in our eighth year shows that the scheme is a sound one, and that the income we receive in the early days was no flash in the pan.

Please continue to think about Life Insurance as the soundest method of saving. One small policy is a good start, but the older we get, and the more responsibilities we assume, the greater the wisdom of increasing cover. We have already had several of the first who supported the scheme coming back for more; and with a membership like ours there should be room for many more of like kind. A reminder to the new members that the rates for life assurance are cheapest when the proposer is young may be in place.

We are now roughly half-way towards the capital sum which will produce a sufficient income to provide a substantial annual scholarship.

G. M. AYLWIN.

NEWS OF OLD BOYS.

Congratulations on their respective marriages to J. W. Brooker (1924-1930), F. A. Holloway (1915-1921) and L. W. Jarvis (1919-1925). Our good wishes to all of them.

C. P. Ablett (1910-1912), of Scunthorpe, Lincolnshire, has been elected a Borough and County Councillor.

D. Bentall (1926-1931) has passed his "Final" and has been elected an Associate of the Incorporated Association of Rating and Valuation Officers (Congratulations!). He is now Rating Officer to the Clutton Rural District Council. He is about 10 miles from Wells, Bristol and Bath.

W. A. Riseborough (1932-1937) is apparently hard at work—and play—at Chatham, if his daily programme is to be believed! Rise 6.30 a.m., wash and dress; breakfast, 7.15; fall-in, 7.30, march to Mechanical Training Establishment and work on lathes, furnaces and moulds; leave factory 11.15, march back for short service; dinner, 12; mail, 12.30 p.m.; 1 p.m., march to M.T.E. and work until 4 p.m.; march back; tea, 4.45; mail, 5.10; gym, 5.15; school, 6; supper, 7.25; boxing 8-9; turn in, 9.30; lights out, 9.45. Boxing is only for the Fisgard Boxing Team, of which he is a member. Their instructor is a former cruiserweight champion of the Royal Navy. "Bill" was a member of the Fisgard team against the Royal North-West Kent Regiment in October and won the "Flyweight" (Good lad!). His rendering of a "Sam" delights "Lancashire Lads" and "Geordies."

J. V. Brindley (1917-1922) left the R.A.F. in November. His last station was North Cotes, in the wilds of Lincolnshire.

J. W. Brooker (1924-1930) sends interesting news from Cosham of his various sporting activities. He plays water polo regularly for the Police second team, and has occasionally assisted the first team. This year he was third in the 100 yards championship of the Force (in 1936 he was second!). He was a member of the Police relay team which defeated the Surrey Constabulary at Farnham for the Costelow Cup. At Folkestone his team lost by a touch to the Surrey Constabulary for a cup open to the Police Forces of S.E. England. Most interesting to his contemporaries will be the news that he was in the Cricket first team all last season. They lost only two matches—one v. X Division Metro. Police and the other v. West Sussex Police (top scorer: J. W. Brooker, 23!). He is now hoping to play Football!

G. A. Bacon (1926-1937) is with the Burma-Siam Rice Company and expects to go "out East" in due time.

W. S. L. Smallman (1927-1933) ran third in the South London Harriers five miles championship for the Gibb Cup.

E. C. Patrick (1920-1927) in September won (after a tie shoot) the Surrey XX Club Championship (Senior Division).

L. A. Lickfold (1914-1917) has been successful in obtaining the Archbishop of Canterbury's Diploma in Church Music. He has been appointed organist of the Church of St. John, Edinburgh.

S. G. Hill (1919-1923) is now with the Imperial Airways, Karachi, India. He went out last February, flying to Alexandria in one of the new Empire Boats and onwards in an older type of landplane. He is in charge of all the Company's stores on that Division, which extends from Karachi to Hong-Kong. He writes of hot days—110° inside the hangar. When the rains started, the streets of Karachi and the surrounding country were knee-deep in water. After a week of it, one could hardly move about at all, and the aerodrome was an ideal lake!

T. M. Lee (1925-1927) is now secretary to one of the Vice-Presidents of the Rio Grande Oil, Inc., of Los Angeles, California. He enthuses over the summer activities of Southern California. One week-end it is a beach party, next a trip up State, or perhaps a trip to the mountains. He promises a snap of himself astride a horse—"that's the life!" His annual holiday was spent in San Francisco. "What a time!" His spare time he spends at the University of Southern California.

B. P. Harper (1934-1935) has met A. C. Hoey in Kenya. He was at the School some time in the '90's, went off to the South African War, and, after farming in South Africa, journeyed to Kenya, where he was one of the first to open up that country. He is on the council and road boards and is a "name" in the country.

B. E. Allen (1925-1933) writes that after a strenuous time at the Depôt in Jerusalem, he is fully enjoying the life of a "Mounted Policeman" in the rural districts of Palestine. He is at the Police Post at Karkur in the Northern District. The climate is wonderful; for nearly eight months of the year not a cloud in the sky, but when it rains it does so for two or three days and just falls out of the sky! His post is right away in the hills, somewhat lonely at times. There are five British and three Arab constables. He is learning Arabic, and affirms that Arab coffee is the finest in the world.

H. Smither (1922-1933) has been selected for a Supplementary Reserve Commission. He goes to Catterick in April for the three weeks' training course.

We were glad to hear that H. Spiegel (1935-1937) had settled down quickly at Bradford, where he is undergoing a two years' course on Textiles at the Technical College. He spends his time designing, weaving, spinning and listening to lectures on yarn and cloth manufacture. He writes cheerfully in spite of a very strenuous programme of work.

M. E. P. West (1928-1937) has started on his law career with characteristic enthusiasm. He appears to be reading Maine's "Ancient Law" and translating Justinian's "Institutes" (using the crib as little as possible). We are delighted to hear that he proposes to visit us whenever possible. Will contemporaries please note that he will in future be known as M. E. P. Jump (by Deed Poll) and that he will appear under that style whenever news of him is published in this feature (often, we hope).

It is good to hear that R. W. Dipper (1932-1936) is doing well in the R.A.F. at Halton. His activities appear to be threefold: school (where "my F.G.S. training has proved a perfect foundation"), workshop and sport (baseball and swimming). He meets his contemporaries W. B. Witt and V. G. Anderson, who are also at Halton.

A. J. Beard (1929-1936) has been awarded the Wignall Memorial Prize for Physics at Queen Mary College (London).

J. R. Killick (1933-1936) is in the Map Department of the War Office.

Congratulations to T. K. Gardner (1928-1934, 1936) on passing the B.A. (general) examination of London University at St. John's College, Exeter.

R. E. Lintern (1931-1936) has begun his studies at Wye College. More point to his pencil!

It is gratifying to read that P. C. Dainty (1923-1929), of the Southend Harriers, was a member of the British Athletic Team which visited Scandinavia this year. In the 5,000 metre race between Great Britain and Finland he came in fourth.

J. Meddows Taylor (1918-1926) has been appointed assistant engineer to Maidstone Water Co., as from January 3rd next.

A long and welcome letter comes from C. G. Morton (1925-1932), who is in S. India. He was snatched from his course in Applied Geophysics at the School of Mines to accompany a survey party prospecting for "auriferous quartz reefs" in Mysore State. Unexpectedly he now finds himself in charge of the party, including 200 coolies, but apparently he finds the burden of responsibility pleasant. The climate, too, has not troubled him unduly, as they are 3,000ft. above sea level, and they have come through the hot season "without any discomfort, the shade temperature only exceeding 100° F. on two occasions. He writes enthusiastically of Geophysical Prospecting, which is in for a boom. He will gladly help anyone at F.G.S. who thinks of taking up this branch of science, which appears to be both interesting and profitable. He has become a life member of the Association. In a later letter he writes that he is just beginning to realise what it means to be really busy. For the last two months he has been struggling against adverse weather—two inches of rain in 20 minutes makes rather a mess of things. For those who would like to write to him, here is the address:—Geophysical Survey Party, c/o Ooregum Gold Mining Co. of India, Ltd., Oorgaum P.O., S. India.

Further news of H. Smither is that he has been appointed Junior Mains Engineer in the Electricity Department at Bromley, Kent. There he will be in the company of N. Lowry, who is Consumers' Engineer.

W. J. Baker (1890-1891) writes with reference to our "Cricket" article in the last issue of the Magazine. "At the time in question" (1877), he writes, "I had not practised the art of giving the dummy on the football field; rather the 'dummy' was being given to me." He confirms that Castle School played where now is held Guildford Cattle Market. He goes on: "Old boys (very old boys for preference) should certainly be prompted to send along any items of outstanding events during their period. Who recollects the fight in the old playground between Tom Dunston (then head boy) and A. Baker, of Alton? Also those lovely black eyes of Reilly's? Did he 'Hearn' them?"
